WORKSHOP FLAMENCO

As a teacher, Joaquin is deeply respectful of each individual's sensibility. His own philosophy, which has led him to develop his Vulcano and Espacio Abierto Methode, has allowed him to deliver an inspiring and unforgettable experience in his classes. He encourages us to dare, to be true to ourselves, and to challenge ourselves in a personal way, without competitiveness. His serene demeanor and profound understanding of Flamenco, in addition to his career as dancer, choreographer, musician and teacher, makes him a true master. His motivation as a teacher is to discover the simplest and most direct way to transmit the fundamentals and the spirit of Flamenco to his students.

He teaches in several countries, has been instructor at the Ballet Nacional de España, at the world-renowned flamenco school Amor de Dios in Madrid, and has been visiting instructor at the Conservatorio Superior de Danza in Madrid.
